

Peña Nieto congratulates José Sarukhán, winner of the Tyler Prize

The Tyler Prize is the most important award given to scientists who study the biological wealth of the planet.

- The recognition was disseminated through his Twitter account

The President emphasized the deserved recognition of his untiring work

MEXICO CITY (21 / FEB / 2017) .- President Enrique Peña Nieto congratulated the national coordinator of the National Commission for the Knowledge and Use of Biodiversity ( Conabio ), José Sarukhán Kermez, who received the Tyler Award for Environmental Achievement 2017 .

In his Twitter account @EPN highlighted that the award is a deserved recognition of his tireless work in favor of biodiversity and his commitment to institutional strengthening.

"I congratulate Dr. José Sarukhán, founder and current National Coordinator of @Conabio, for receiving the Tyler Award for Environmental Achievement 2017," he wrote in the social network.

The Tyler Award, awarded by the Tyler Foundation and the University of Southern California (USC), is the most important award in the United States for scientists studying the biological wealth of the planet.

This news can be consulted at: <http://www.informador.com.mx/mexico/2017/708339/1/pena-nieto-felicita-a-jose-sarukhan-ganador-del-premio-tyler.htm>
PRINTED: Monday, June 5, 2017